

The M-Solar battery consisting of reliable tubular cells, is capable of high cycling - in excess of 1500 cycles to a 50% depth of discharge. In terms of price, this battery represents an economical alternative to other power storage options.